NEW YORKS BREAK EVEN.

Louisvilles Capture the Rubbar from the St res-Otselauatie Take Three Straight from the Champtons-Boston, Chicago and Pitts-burg Win the Other League Games-Rotes The New Yorks played a double-header at Cleveland yesterday and broke even. Joyce's men, all things considered, put up an article of baseball that should prove a source of encouragement to the cranks. The first game was a sattle of pitchers, the Clevelands having to play un. The New Yorks did some powerful hitting in the second battle and won easily. At Louis-ville the Brooklyns lost the rubber, but they are still ahead of the Harlem team. The Cincinatis continued their remarkable work by taking their third straight game from the Baltimores. Ewing's men also advanced to within twenty nine points of the champions' percentage. Pittsburg outpointed Philadelphia again, and the Bostons increased their hold on fourth place by walloping St. Louis once more. Chicago got away with Washington. The results: Cleveland, 4: New York, S. (First game.)

CLEVELAND, May 22.-New York played two en-inning affair, and was well played throughout. Rusie pitched a strong game, but the Spiders played top-notch ball and won in the tenth. In the eighth inning Van Haltren made a seemingly impossible one-hand catch of Burkett's long line fly. After Tebeau got his base on balls in the tenth and two men went out Sockalexis lined the ball out to deep centre, bringing Tebeau home. The second game was as poor an exhibition of ball as the first game was good. The Spiders made all sorts of errors and inose scored against them only faintly tell the story of the stupid ball they played. Dobeny was practically invincible and only scattering hits were made off him. Young proved a mark, and was early put on the pension list. Wilson, who followed him, proved a trifle better, but the visitors had their anger up and batted him freely. The exhibition of pitching by Dobeny was a beautiful sight. He had perfect command of the ball, and the Spiders looked silly every time they went to the bat. Joyce did some clever ball playing, and Gleason's quick plays evoked applause. One New Yorker, Holmes, was sent all around the bases in the fifth on errors. The ders played top-notch ball and won in the

LOUISVILLE, 11; REOOKLYN, 5.
LOUISVILLE, May 22.—Both teams bunched their hits to-day. The Colonels bunched more effectively, especially after bases on balls and errors, and walked away with the game. Cunningham sent the ball over the left field fence in the fifth for a home run. In succession thereafter came a base on balls and three singles.
In the seventh the home team bunched a base on balls, two singles, and a triple. Errors gave the other runs. The grooms bunched a single, double, and triple in the seventh. McMahon's fielding was the feature of the game. Score:

gle with Lady Mitchell-Fremier Wins the Claremont Handleap and Mars Chan the International Steeplechase-The Other Races Fully 8,000 persons were at Morris Park yesterday afternoon, and they saw a most enjoya-ble programme of six races decided, the stake features, the Ladies' for three-year-old fillies at one mile, the Claremont Highweight Handicap for three-year-olds and upward at six and a half furlongs, and the International Steeplechase, over the long course, furnishing extremely close and exciting finishes.

There was a small field for the Ladies' Stakes only four facing the starter, and of this quartet only two, Divide and Lady Mitchell, were in it at the death, the former winning after a furious drive all through the homestretch. It was a big and unwieldy lot that accepted the weights for the Claremont, and the winner was James Mc-Laughlin's four-year-old horse Premier, who beat Gotham a head. Gotham was only a nose before Brandywine, and as Tinge was lapped on the big five-year-old the spectators had every opportunity to enthuse. The steeplechase was eplete with accidents and incidents, the crack performers of two years ago, Lady Raymond and Duke of Abercorn, going down in company with Marcus and Eric, leaving the outsider, Mars Chan, to beat Baroness a short head for the major end of the rich stake. Lady Raymond broke lown, and poor Duke of Abercorn, having broken one of his forelegs at the second last jump, was destroyed. The veteran was running well up with his field when he went down, and it was the first time he had ever been known to fall in a race hereabouts.

William Lakeland's crack filly Winged Foot, ogether with Charles Littlefield, Jr.'s, Chic went out of the Ladies' Stakes, and E. M. Nise's Minnie Alphonse was posted as an added starter. This made a field of four. Divide, on the strength of her good race this spring, was made favorite, but there was a constant demand for Lady Mitchell, a filly which was considered last autumn as quite the pick of her age and sex. It was her first star tthis year, and on condition Divide was certain to have a marked advantage. Still, Lady Mitchell's adherents clung to her and took all the 8 to 5 they could find. Leonore and Minnie Alphonse were not considered. Minnie Alphonse made play until the head of the stretch, where Lady Mitchell took command of affairs, Simms moving up on the outside, ler so hard that the hard headed jockey was rendered unconscious for a time. Erie went down at the next jump, and the other six went at it hammer and tongs. Baroness went racing after taking the water jump the second time, and Lady Raymond too improved her position materially. The old mare stopped badly at the beginning of the backstretch, and Baroness and Mars Chan flew past her. Lady Raymond fell on the upper turn, and Baroness and Mars Chan ment after Duke of Abercorn. The Duke tumbled head over heels at the jump under the lee of the hill, and Mars Chan took command of affairs. Baroness, who seemed to stop half-way home, came very strong in the final furlong, and Mara had to flog Mara Chan home to win by a head. Baroness would have won handily had her rider, Dunlop, not broken a stirrup iron a mile from home. Duke of Abercorn was destroyed. He was a chestnut gelding, 7 years old, by Duke of Magenta, out of Lady Lumler, dam of Hataplan and other good performers. He won a number of the richest cross-country races for his owner, Mr. Robert Hooper of Boston. The crack Irish gentleman rider, Mr. Persse, piloted the big chestnut gelding in most of his races prior to this year. Mr. Hooper saw his old favorite race to his death yesterday.

August Belmont's St. Barthoiomew, at 4 to 1, won the opening dash for three-year-olds at seven furlongs. Petrel was winning, but Sloan became overeonfident and threw the race away. Firmo, the red-hot tip, was fourth, beaten a head for third money by Collateral. That good coit, George Keene, took the second race, a dash for two-year-olds at five furlongs. Googled with his stable companion. Kenmore Queen, he sold favorite. Great Bend, a brother to Brandy wine was second and Previous third. The Dominican, a brother to The Friar, made his debut in this race. He looks like The Friar, but stopped at the end of three furlongs. The handicap for a purse of $1,000, at one mile and a furlong, went to the favorite, Dutch Skater, who beat the second choice, Lake Shore, in a hard drive. Volley

The New Pool Law Prenounced Satisfactory

by Horsemen. Road horses were put away two in a box at Ficetwood Park yesterday, while one hundred or more of the late arrivals had to be tied out un der the trees, such was the number of road riders who drove out to the old track for the opening of the trotting season. A mixed programme of amateur and professional racing, supplemented by two matches between local road horses, furnished some lively sport for the 1,500 persons in attendance. Dan Mace's former associate, Jimmy O'Netil, who poses as the oldest poolseller now on the trotting turf, opened his box on the clubhouse piazza early in the afternoon and commenced operations under the harness racing law which Gov. which Gov. Black signed last Monday. Whas was probably the first pool ticket sold in the State under the new law went to a well-known New York bank President, who picked Alex. Newberger's chestnut mare Smilax, by Sidney, to win the race for 2:20 pacera. Betting was lively throughout the afternoon, and although O'Nell complied strictly with the provisions of the Burr law, which forbids the delivery sof tickets or exchange of tokens or memorada of any sort, everybody said that the new system was entirely satisfactory.

The best feature of the day's sport was the race for trotters to road wagons driven by amateur members of the Driving Club. Five started in this event, but the contest was wholly between the chestnut mare Memento, owned and driven by A.H. Combs, a Wall street broker, and the brown mare Baroesa, owned by Warres F. Leland of the Windsor Hotel and driven by James McClenahan, a member of the Executive Committee of the Driving Club. The fluishes ware very close in both heats. Mr. McClenahan drove with rare skill, lifting Barossa toward the wife in Goldsmith style; but his mare was short of work and slightly overmatched in polatic frame by just about a head in the first heat and by less than a length in the second.

The match race for $500 a side between M. J. Leonard's Russell T. and William Love's Prince A. turned out to be an easy thing for the Cualam House troiter, Leonard winning in straights heats with speed to spare at the finish. After Love had lost his $550 he drove Prince A. turned out to be an easy thing for the Cualam House troiter, Leonard winning in straight heats with speed to spare at the finish. After Love had lost his $550 he drove Prince A. two trial miles in 2:380 and 2:28, but the horse was unsteady in his race, and Russell T. best him in 2:384, 2:354, 2:35, Leonard's horse was a heat favorite before the start.

Another match race for $200 was decided between R. Deliser's troiting mare Addie B. and William Boyle's pacer Lady Wildwood. In the second heat the latter mare made a wearing tanced.
